Several on the ranch are plowing for corn.

Alex Rankin was in Mendon Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Adams spent Sunday with Mendon friends.

S. K. Jensen and Durham Rankin were in Brunswick last week.

Mrs. Alice Huston spent the past week with her sister in Sumner.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Adams were guests of Mendon friends Sunday.

Mrs. G. H. Whitham and Miss Gladys Whitham were shopping in Carrollton Tuesday.

Miss Edna Silvers of Triplett was an over Sunday guest of her sister, Mrs. G. H. Whitham.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Boring of "The Valley of the Nile" spent the Sabbath at Stephen Donley's.

J. E. Squire and Abe Adams drove out to Luther Chapman's, east of Mendon, Tuesday for a hog.

Dr. John Lucas and wife of Mendon were guests of the latter's brother, J. E. Squire, Sunday evening.

E. H. Whitham, who has been attending to business matters here for the past week, left for his home in Rankin, Ill., Wednesday.

Miss Gladys Whitham came in from Oklahoma last Thursday night for a few weeks' visit with her brother, G. H., and wife before returning to her home in Illinois.

Steve Brown of Triplett was in this vicinity Saturday selling a mite-killer, and there will be no more "cussing" among the women.

Everybody is eating wild geese these days. O. M. and Robert Bridger shot 10 Saturday morning and Durham Rankin and Boone Green shot four Monday morning.

Mendon Mention.

Editor Wicks made a business trip to Marceline last week.

Charles Light made a business trip to Kirksville Saturday.

Miss Lula Stanley of Rothville is visiting Ray Lamb and family for a few days.

Mrs. J. P. Lucas made an over Sunday visit to Brookfield, returning on No. 19 Monday.

Miss Anna Henderson made an over Sunday visit with Dr. U. G. Buck's family at Rothville.

Geo. Bartee and wife attended a social function of the I. O. O. F. at Rothville Saturday night.

Our furniture dealer, Adam Gehrig, is a man with whom the public can trade with confidence.

Dean Dodd of Yates Center,

Kas., is here on a visit to his brother and other relatives and friends.

Miss Virgin, one of our successful teachers, spent Sunday with friends and relatives at Salisbury.

Prof. A. A. DeVol, son of the pastor of the Mendon Christian church, spent a few days here last week visiting his father.

Our loquacious friend, Chapman, says: "Dad binged if I can understand how some people can talk so much and say so little."

Geo. Fletcher purchased the J. W. Richardson restaurant and moved the stock into the Lucas property next to Herndon's drug store.

John B. Accola says: "Dog my cats if it don't beat all what business capacity some people develop tending to other people's affairs."

A new voter has been added to the family of Jas. Watts. Last Sunday early in the morning Mrs. Watts presented her husband with a baby boy, and Papa Jim is happy in the prospect of a future president.

Listening at some men talk about a man recently dead the writer could not help thinking what a pleasant world this would be to live in if we would say to living men the splendid things we say of the dead.

Last Friday M. B. Nicholson, photo man, bought the Bosworth branch photo gallery of J. A. Nickell of Marceline. Mr. Nicholson is a first-class photographer and the people of Bosworth will not be disappointed in his work.

The "Berean Stars" of the Christian Sunday-school is composed of about 30 of as fine young people as you could wish to meet. They are trying to raise $200 to pay for their interest in the remodeled church and they will succeed.

Last Sunday night Rev. J. H. Purdue took as his sermon

Church Benefit Sale!

BEGINNING NEXT MONDAY, MARCH 15, I will inaugurate a Big Benefit Sale for the four churches of Keytesville—Baptist, Christian, Methodist and Presbyterian, that will continue for

SIX DAYS ONLY

at which I will offer my entire choice and well-selected stock of Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing Goods, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes and Notions AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

Monday will be Baptist Day, Tuesday Christian Day, Wednesday Methodist Day and Thursday Presbyterian Day, while a certain per cent of Friday's and Saturday's sales will be divided equally between the four denominations named.

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE to lay in your Spring and Summer Goods, and at the same time lend a helping hand to God's People.

T. F. WHITE,
Keytesville, Mo.

Sacrifice Sale!

I have bought the stock of General Merchandise and fixtures from Frank T. Taylor, consisting of DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES,
Shoes, Hats, Caps,

Heavy and light weight underwear, dress shirts, work shirts, overalls and jackets, gloves, mittens, ladies', gents' and children's fine hosiery, embroideries, Valenciennes and Torchon laces, men's fine ties, suspenders, Persian lawns and white goods, calicos, domestics, linen and cotton crashes, linen towels, handkerchiefs, the celebrated Ball corsets and a full stock of notions. In the grocery department you will find such well-known brands as Vancamp's and Hillside canned goods, Yale brand of coffee, also glassware, queensware and hand painted china, glass and fancy lamps, oil cans, stoneware and everything usually kept in a first-class grocery department.

This will be one of the BIGGEST SACRIFICE SALES that ever struck Chariton county, as we will save you 25 to 50 per cent on every article you purchase. Don't fail to attend this great sale.

Sale Begins Saturday, March 13, and continues till the stock is closed out.

Seward's Fine Hand Made
